

Twelfth Annual
CFAC
Community Exhibition

October 3 - November 1, 2018

Eligibility:

- Artists living in Sweetwater County may submit up to two original works (i.e. paintings, drawings, prints, collage, photography, fabric or 3-D works.)

Delivery:

- Deliver artwork and completed entry form to CFAC in Rock Springs by Monday, October 1, 2018 at 5:00 p.m.
- The show will end November 1st. Work should be picked up as soon as possible after that day.

Guidelines:

- This exhibit will hang in the CFAC which is a department of the Sweetwater County Library System and should conform with community standards in regard to subject matter (i.e.. no violence, erotica).
- Work can be no larger than 8 square feet. All work will be framed appropriately and ready to hang with framing wire. 3D works must sit on a stable base or easily hung.
- Attach an information card (in this prospectus) securely to the back of each work. Copies can be made of these cards.

*The Community Fine Arts Center
staff reserves the right to reject any work not following the above guidelines.*

This year's theme is

TRAINS!

In celebration of the 150th year anniversary of the Union Pacific railroad being built across Wyoming, this year's community exhibit's theme is "Trains." Held each October, this exhibit is open to all artists from Sweetwater County. Artists of all levels are encouraged to submit artwork that follows this year's theme.

All work submitted must represent this year's theme. All forms of art and craft in any media including painting, drawing, collage, fabric and metal art, and three-dimensional work are all welcome.
